Dorothy also sees some strange people and a beautiful woman. "Hello! I'm Dorothy," she says. "Welcome to Oz!" says the woman. "I'm Glinda the good witch and they are the Munchkins." Dorothy points to the red shoes. "Are they your shoes?" she asks. Glinda points to the woman under the house. "No, they are her shoes! She's the Wicked Witch of the East!"

Dorothy is confused. Everyone is happy because the Wicked Witch of the East is dead. Glinda gives Dorothy the red shoes. "These magic shoes are for you now!" she says. But Dorothy doesn't want the shoes. She wants to go home. Glinda tells Dorothy that the Wizard of Oz in the Emerald City can help her. "Where is the Emerald City?" asks Dorothy. "Just put on the shoes and follow the yellow brick road!" says Glinda.

This is the story of Dorothy. She lives with her uncle, her aunt and her dog, Toto. They live on a farm in Kansas. One day there is a terrible tornado. Dorothy and Toto hide inside the house because they are afraid. When Dorothy looks outside, she sees that her house is in the sky.

After some time, the house falls on the ground. Dorothy goes outside and looks around. She can't find her uncle and her aunt. She can't see her garden. "Where are we?" she asks Toto. When she turns around, she sees a pair of red shoes under her house.
